

Book Release Reading & Celebration

“The poets laureate of Ukiah...stand in a tradition that is both ancient and local. They embody the civic sense that poetry is still our most memorable and expressive way of using words to describe our existence. Their office signifies that the literature still matters to both citizens and the commonwealth.”

—FROM THE PREFACE BY DANA GIOIA

ISBN: 9780997967722

Books will be available locally through the Grace Hudson Museum store (signed) along with Mendocino Bookstore, and online through Amazon, or by contacting the publisher, Michael Riedell, Slow Mountain Press, innisfree@pacific.net

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2018

5 O'CLOCK PM

GRACE HUDSON MUSEUM

431 SOUTH MAIN STREET # UKIAH, CA 95482 # (707) 467-2836

Poets Armand Brint, Linda Noel, David Smith-Ferri, Theresa Whitehill, Dan Barth, Jabez W. Churchill, and Michael Riedell will read from the anthology of work from Ukiah's first seven poets laureate, recently published by Slow Mountain Press.

The reading will be followed by refreshments, book-signing, and conviviality.

With thanks to the Grace Hudson Museum for their support.