

WRITERS READ UKIAH

PRESENTS

HAL ZINA BENNETT

Hal Zina Bennett is the author of more than 20 books published by New York and West Coast publishers. With Mike Samuels, MD, he co-authored The Well Body Book; Be Well, and Well Body, Well Earth, books that helped to popularize self-help health and environmentalism in the seventies and eighties. As a youth in rural Michigan he was introduced to shamanism through an extended near-death experience, reflected in many of his books. His poems often explore shamanic themes such as human/animal relationships, death and rebirth, and Earth-centered spirituality. His work has been published in several languages worldwide, with over a half-million copies in print. As ghost writer-editor he has helped launch over 100 successful books, including several international bestsellers. He's a graduate of the Creative Writing Department at San Francisco State University where he studied writing with James Schevill, Mark Linenthal, Wright Morris, and Walter van Tilburg Clark. He and his wife Susan J Sparrow founded Tenacity Press.
