

WRITERS READ UKIAH

PRESENTS

RIANTEE LYDIA RAND

Riantee Lydia Rand was born in Paris, France where her first book of poetry in French was published. She has lived on the Mendocino Coast since 1973, has participated in poetry readings and contributed to reviews, magazines and anthologies with both her poetry, articles and short stories. She has been a translator of French poetry and Art Essays. She has five books currently in print: two books of her poetry, a work of non-fiction, a collection of her travel stories, and a memoir.

ART CENTER UKIAH

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29 2018

7 PM: FEATURED READING

8 PM: OPEN MIC

Art Center Ukiah: 201 South State Street, Corner of Church Street, Ukiah, CA 95482
(1 block south of Ukiah Court House on opposite side of the street)

Suggested donation: $5  Refreshments provided

For Information, contact Writers Read Ukiah MC Michael Riedell, innisfree@pacific.net

Writers Read happens on the last Thursday of most every month and has been happening in Ukiah since 1999.

This reading series is sponsored in part by Poets & Writers, through a grant from the James Irvine Foundation and the Hearst Foundation.

Additional support provided by an anonymous local writer, Colored Horse Studios, Michael Riedell, Bill "Jabez" Churchill, the Poet Laureate Committee of Ukiah, Art Center Ukiah, and donations.